Please choose courses carefully. Students are expected to complete all courses selected. Staffing is based upon student course selections, therefore it is imperative that you make wise choices as changes may not be permitted once the school year begins. *Students must sign up for all three cross-curricular cohort classes in order to be in the cohort. * The JMHS cross-curricular cohort combines content and skills from three honors level core classes: Biology, World History 1, and English 9. All current FCPS students should choose their courses through their StudentVue account under the Course Request tab. Please search by course number.
